Introduction:

The seminar on Development of Intellectual Property Rights was held on 1st September, 2023 at JKKMMRF's Annai JKK Sampooraniammal College of Pharmacy. The seminar was organized by the Department of Pharmacy, and a total of 50 students participated. The purpose of the seminar was to provide attendees to impart greater awareness about the issue of Intellectual Property Right (IPR), which has gained a special importance for all the domains of socio-economic development. At the end of the seminar, all attendees received a certificate of completion.

Objectives:

The main objectives of the seminar were to:

1. Procedures of patent writing & patent filing
2. Filing for foreign protection Provisional patents
3. Claiming patent pending
4. The process of granting patent
5. Protection of IP
6. Proprietary information
7. Licensing deal

Participants:

The seminar was open to all students at JKKMMRF's Annai JKK Sampooraniammal College of Pharmacy, and a total of 50 students participated. The attendees were new to the field.

Format:

The seminar was structured as a combination of lectures, group discussions, and hands-on exercises. The lectures were led by an experienced researcher with expertise in intellectual property rights and the hands-on exercises were led by a trained facilitator. The seminar was held over one full day, with breaks in between to allow attendees to rest and ask questions.

Content:

The seminar covered a range of topics related to Pharmacological research areas. On the seminar day, attendees learned about the importance of patenting for the development and application of new technology for the benefit of society. They also learned about the different sections involved in the Indian Patent Act.

Evaluation:

At the end of the seminar, attendees were asked to complete a short evaluation form to provide feedback on the seminar. Overall, the evaluations were very positive, with most attendees rating the workshop as "excellent" or "good." Attendees commented that the lectures were clear and well-organized, and that the hands-on exercises were helpful in providing a practical understanding on clear picture of Indian Patent Law.

Conclusion:

Overall, the seminar on Development of Intellectual Property Rights, A total of 50 students participated, and all attendees received a certificate of completion. The positive feedback from attendees suggests that the workshop met its objectives and was well-received by the participants. The skills and knowledge gained from the seminar will be valuable to the students as they continue their studies and pursue careers in the field of pharmacy.

Recommendations:

Based on the evaluations and feedback from attendees, were commend offering similar seminar in the future to create greater awareness about the issue of Intellectual Property Right (IPR) at JKKMMRF's Annai JKK Sampooraniammal College of Pharmacy. It may also be helpful to consider offering more advanced seminar for those who have already completed the basic seminar and are looking to further develop their skills.
